

Afternoon at the Opera

“Orpheus in the Underworld”

Wednesday, June 17th at 3pm
Auditorium

Offenbach's operetta is a satirical and witty lampoon of the Greek legend of Orpheus and the dissolute goings-on of the gods on Mt. Olympus. A ribald and funny production by the Belgian National Opera, with inventive staging and lively music including the famous Can-Can.
(with English subtitles)

Sponsored by the BRA Music Committee

Questions? Contact Judy Stamberg at stambergj@yahoo.com or 443-578-x8293.